RNEA Bylaws-5/ 2011

ROCKWOOD NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION BYLAWS

The mission of the Rockwood National Education Association is to represent Rockwood NEA members to the Administration and Board of Education, to encourage cooperation and the exchange of ideas among all staff members, to communicate with patrons of the district, to be involved in local, state, and national education issues, to encourage professional growth and development, and to promote high educational standards for the benefit of all students.

ARTICLE I -- NAME

The name of this Association shall be the Rockwood National Education Association, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II -- MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Classes of Membership

- A. There shall be three classes of membership in the Association: Active, Retired, and Associate.
 1. Active membership shall be open to all regular full and part-time professional teaching employees of the District as defined in the Collective Bargaining agreement between RNEA and the District.
 2. Retired membership shall be open to any person who was eligible for active membership prior to retirement.
 3. Associate membership shall be open to any person regularly employed by an educational institution or agency, but not eligible for any other class of membership in the Association.
- B. The membership fee for persons eligible for active membership shall be determined by the combined annual dues of the NEA, the Missouri NEA, and the local Association. The Association Representatives Assembly shall approve local Association dues. Employees not receiving full benefits from the district shall be eligible for active membership at one-half the annual dues.
- C. The local membership fee for persons eligible for active membership who are regularly employed less than full time (as verified by the Association) shall be one-half of the local active membership dues.

- D. The local membership fee for persons eligible for associate membership shall be one-half the local annual dues of an active member.
- E. The membership fee for persons eligible for retired membership shall be as set by NEA/MNEA.
- F. Any member joining the Association for the first time as an active member before January 1 shall be enrolled in full standing for the remainder of the membership year by paying full annual dues. Members who join after January 1 will pay reduced annual dues as outlined by Missouri NEA guidelines.
- G. Any member not in good standing due to non-payment of fees shall lose all benefits of membership in the Association including voting privileges.
- H. Any member who terminates membership must notify the Association and District in writing and afford the District and Association a reasonable opportunity to act on it.
- I. Any member who terminates membership on or after September 1st is responsible to pay the remainder of dues for that school year. Payment may continue to be made through payroll deduction.

Section 2 - Rights and Limitations

- A. Active membership shall be limited to those persons who maintain membership in and support the principles, goals, and Code of Ethics of the National Education Association and in the Missouri National Education Association where eligible.
- B. A member may appeal his/her assigned class of membership to the Association Executive Board.
- C. The Association shall not deny membership to individuals on the basis of race, creed, national origin, gender, or sexual orientation.
- D. Any member of the Association has the right to attend any meeting of the membership, the Association Representatives Assembly, or the Executive Board, except where executive session is called to discuss personnel, acquisition of property, or litigation. Only members elected to the Association Representatives Assembly or the Executive Board may vote at meetings of those bodies.
- E. The right to hold elective office shall be limited to active members. The right to serve as a delegate to the Association Representatives Assembly, to vote, and to hold appointive positions shall be limited to active members.

- F. All members shall be eligible to receive special services, to obtain assistance in the protection of professional and civil rights, and to receive reports and publications of the Association.
- G. Any member who changes his professional or occupational position shall immediately be transferred to the class of membership applicable to the new position.
- H. Membership shall be continuous unless terminated for cause.
- I. Members may retain membership status pending the outcome of legal or quasi-legal procedures that could result in dismissal.
- J. No member may be censured by, suspended, or expelled from the Association, without a due process hearing, which shall include an appropriate appellate procedure.

Section 3 – Membership and Fiscal Year

- A. The RNEA establishes the same membership and fiscal year as that of NEA/MNEA, September 1, through August 31.
- B. ~~The RNEA abides by all provisions regarding Section A 501 C5 of the IRS code. The Association shall have all powers necessary and proper to take action for the attainment of these goals; all within the meaning of Section A501C5 of the Internal Revenue code. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed to prevent the Association from pursuing objectives which are consistent with the goals of the Association.~~
- C. Membership is required in the local association Rockwood National Education Association (RNEA), Missouri National Education Association (MNEA), and National Education Association (NEA).

b. A member of the Nomination and Election Committee may not be a candidate for office while serving on the committee.

Section Two – Guidance and Rules of Conduct when Representing the Association on District Committees

When an active, retired or associate, member of the Association is appointed to a Rockwood School District committee by appointment of the president or designate, and is acting on behalf of or representing the association's Executive Board, the member shall represent and uphold the views of the Executive Board.

Members of the association may speak to professional practices and hold personal opinions about the work and matters before a committee, but may not represent those views in whole or part as the views of the Association as governed by the Executive Board or speak on behalf of or purport to represent the views of the Executive Board/Association without express permission of the Executive Board. Those appointed to be an Association Representative on a district committee should act consistent with the understanding they are representing the entire association and not individual agendas or concerns even though personal experience and concerns could be expressed in the committee discussions.

Representing members could be asked to report committee work to the Executive Board upon request at a regularly scheduled meeting or Association Officer.

Appointed members who violate this understanding may be subject to removal by the President or Executive Board. The member will have the right to appeal the removal to the Executive Board.

The purpose of this By-Law is to protect the integrity of the of Rockwood National Education Association organization's decision-making process as well as to enable our constituencies to have confidence in the integrity, intentions and actions of the Officers, Executive Board Members, and Association Representatives.. To that end, we understand that this By-Law is not meant to supplement good judgment and all association members should respect its spirit as well as its wording.

ARTICLE IX - PROCEDURES

Section 1 - Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be the authority on all questions of procedure not specifically stated in these Bylaws.

Section 2 – Conflict of Interest

No member of Rockwood National Education Association, Officer, Executive Board Member, Association Representative, Staff, or Volunteer shall derive any personal profit or gain, directly or indirectly, by reason of his or her participation with the Rockwood National Education Association. Personal profit does not extend to participation in the associations negotiations efforts, when issues of any type are discussed and a member may benefit from participation in said process. Further, personal profit does not include authorized stipends or reimbursements set forth and voted on by the executive board or the association's representative body that are reasonable and customary for services rendered to the organization.

This principles set forth in this By-Law shall also include the member's business or other nonprofit affiliations, family and/or significant other, employer, or close associates who may stand to receive a benefit or gain. Each individual shall disclose to the President and Vice President any personal interests which he or she may have in any matter pending before the organization and shall refrain from participation in any discussion or decision on such matter.

In addition, any member of the Rockwood National Education Association, Officer Executive Board Member, Association Representative, staff, and volunteers shall refrain from obtaining any list of clients or donors for personal or private solicitation purposes at any time during the term of their affiliation.

Any new Officer, Executive Board Member, Association Representative or Staff of the Rockwood National Education Association shall be given this policy at the time of their election. This policy will be reviewed in the course of normal By-Law revision cycle by the board at a regularly scheduled meeting.

The purpose of this By-Law is to protect the integrity of the of Rockwood National Education Association organization's decision-making process as well as to enable our constituencies to have confidence in the integrity, intentions and actions of the officers, Executive Board Members, Association Representatives, Staff and Volunteers. To that end, we understand that this By-Law is not meant to supplement good judgment and all association members should respect its spirit as well as its wording.

ARTICLE X -- AMENDMENT AND REVISION

Section 1 - Amendment

Amendments to these Bylaws must be proposed to the Executive Board and then to the Building Representatives Assembly for a first reading, to be voted on at the following meeting. Proposed amendments shall be posted in all buildings for at least ten (10) days prior to consideration of the Association Representatives Assembly. Amendments become effective upon majority vote of the Association Representatives Assembly. Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed to the Executive Board in writing by the membership, by members of the Building Representatives Assembly, or by members of the Executive Board.

Section 2 - Revision

After a period of at most four years, the President shall appoint a Bylaws revision committee of three or more persons. This committee shall make revisions and corrections as are deemed necessary. Proposed changes must be presented for approval to the Executive Board and the Association Representatives Assembly. Copies of the revised Bylaws shall be in all buildings at least two (2) weeks prior to the final vote of the Association Representatives Assembly. The revised Bylaws shall replace the previous Bylaws by majority vote of the Association Representatives Assembly, to become effective no later than two months following the vote.
